

ODEGARD FOUNDATION

Entities: The Odegard Foundation is comprised of various private charitable entities, including the Artificial Intelligence Foundation, Environmental Institute, Genetics Foundation, and the Life Longevity Foundation. While these are separate entities, Philip Odegard coordinates his grantmaking decisions between the entities.

Headquarters: Zürich, Switzerland

Focus Areas: Artificial Intelligence, Environmentalism, Genetics Research, and Life Longevity

Geographic Reach: Global

Intergenerational: No

Leadership:

- Philip Odegard: Chairman and Founder of the Odegard Foundation
- Klaus Vogel: Vice President of Programs
- Victoria Petersen: Executive Vice President

Notable Grants:

Artificial Intelligence Foundation: Establishment of the Artificial Intelligence Foundation, an independent, nonpartisan think tank exploring new ideas across artificial intelligence research, education & outreach.

Environmental Institute: Establishment of the Environmental Institute, an independent, nonpartisan think tank exploring new ideas across environmental research, education & outreach.

Genetic Foundation: Establishment of the Genetic Foundation, an independent, nonpartisan think tank exploring new ideas across genetic research, education & outreach.

Life Longevity: Establishment of the Life Longevity Foundation, an independent, nonpartisan think tank exploring new ideas across longevity research for a healthy and productive life.